Associate

JSchwartz@shawlewenz.com 954-759-0086 Fort Lauderdale, FL

Jeremy A. E. Schwartz is an Associate at Shaw Lewenz and a member of the firm's Commercial Litigation Practice Group. Jeremy represents businesses and individuals in disputes involving complex commercial litigation, securities and stockholder litigation, and RICO and conspiracy litigation. He also assists clients in white-collar criminal matters, government investigations, and administrative matters.

Prior to joining Shaw Lewenz, Jeremy was a prosecutor with the Miami-Dade State Attorney's Office, where he served as an Assistant State Attorney prosecuting cases in the office's Organized Crime & Racketeering Division. In that role, he investigated and handled white-collar felony matters, including organized schemes to defraud, money laundering, insurance and medical fraud, and racketeering (RICO) cases, trying over 50 cases to verdict.

During law school, Jeremy served as a judicial intern to Chief Judge Laurel M. Isicoff in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Florida. He also worked as a legislative intern in the Washington, D.C. offices of then U.S. Senator, now Secretary of State, Marco Rubio, and Congresswoman Ileana Ros-Lehtinen.

Jeremy obtained his J.D., cum laude, from Nova Southeastern University Shepard Broad College of Law, where he graduated in the top 15% of his class. Prior to law school, Jeremy obtained his Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from the University of Alabama.
